

Claymore Target/Mine

The shape of this Battlefield Live unit is distinctive it is a three panel convex curve. Used with a player, it can add a lot of fun to scenario missions.

The mark III claymore has a bank of emitters enabling longer range.

Plus it now can act as a free standing target, useful for both target practice and zeroing the guns.

Claymore Mine is an excellent addition to your Battlefield Live arsenal. We recommend one per team (e.g. ratio 1:10 players).
